MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director (Administration).

I am not satisfied with the record of procedure of the Loyalty Board. That in the case of _____ is returned herewith as an example.

In the first place, I note eleven omissions from the written proceedings which are explained by inserting the term, "off the record". In view of the fact that I read the entire proceedings of the Board, must sign them and must take the responsibility for the action, I do not consider that anything is off the record when the time comes for me to review and approve.

I note also that some discussion was devoted to a period of approximately twelve years when _____ worked in New York at a salary which most Board members considered was not sufficient for maintenance and the question was asked, "where did his money come from?" Apparently this question was answered in generalities to the satisfaction of the Board but I see no reason why our Security people could not have arrived at a much more definitive answer which would have explained the matter.

I do not think from the record there is any reasonable doubt of _____ loyalty and certainly the report which produced this lengthy and expensive Board proceeding arises from what appears to be the most trivial sort of incident. However, if we must as a result of such an incident embark on expensive investigations and Board proceedings, let us do it with complete thoroughness and leave no slipped loose ends.

GENERAL COUNSEL
ASSISTANT DEPUTY (ADMINISTRATION) FOR SECURITY

1. In all cases which involve probable final action of a Loyalty Board, the following reports will be made to me personally:

a. By the Assistant Deputy for Security of any case which remains under his jurisdiction and which has not been passed to the General Counsel for Loyalty Board action after a period of three weeks.

b. By the General Counsel of any case which has been passed to him by the Assistant Deputy for Security for action by the Agency Loyalty Board, and which has not been finally acted upon and passed to me for review after a period of three months.

2. In each case, the two above-mentioned officials rendering their report through the Deputy Director for Administration will indicate the reason for the delay involved beyond the time indicated above for action, which I consider to be reasonable.

Colonel Edwards indicated that the length of time specified in paragraph 1.b. had been changed to "three months". Is that correct?

Memorandum for: Executive Assistant to the Director WLC

Subject: Loyalty Boards.

1. There are presently ten loyalty cases in the Agency, two of which are currently before panels of the CIA Loyalty Board.

2. Under our new Regulation, a panel of the CIA Loyalty Board meets every Tuesday to take up a new case until the backlog has been liquidated. In addition to the Tuesday meetings, once a case has commenced, subsequent meetings of the panel assigned to such a case are held until the case has been completed. Thus, several panels are running concurrently.

3. It should be pointed out that delays have occurred where it is necessary to pull a case out of sequence for reasons of operational priority or the possible seriousness of the case. Security keeps us advised on this point, particularly from a standpoint of what the polygraph examination has shown.
